DECOTO CHAMBER SEEKS BALL FIELD

Assistance to the Marlo baseball team of Decoto was voted by the members of the Decoto Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held at the Fire House Tuesday evening by way of the appointment of P. J. Faletti and Howard Bradbury to assist Team Manager Al Ferreira in acquiring a new ball field.

The team, which plays in the Southern Alameda County Winter Baseball League, has been forced to play its home games on the small diamond at the grade school.

The committee will attempt to lease an acreage from the Myers Estate for a diamond site with the rental expense to be borne by the merchants.

Faletti was also named to represent the chamber at the forthcoming meeting of the Hospital Planning group.

Secretary B. R. Joseph was instructed to communicate with railroad officials to determine what action is to be taken on the chamber's request for a wig-wag warning system at the 12th and H street crossing. He was also instructed to write to the state highway commission requesting that highway signs be erected pointing to the business district of the community.

Twenty members were present at the meeting which was presided over by President Faletti.

A coroner's jury met in Hayward Tuesday with Alameda County Coroner Mark L. Emerson for an inquest into the traffic deaths of three men in Washington Township recently.

Another automobile victim, Francisco Gonzales, Alvarado, died of injuries inflicted by a hit-and-run automobile, the jury held.

IMMUNIZATION PLAN OPENED BY COUNTY HEALTH OFFICE

Protection against diphtheria, whooping cough, and smallpox will be offered children at all schools in Washington Township this fall.

Dr. James Malcolm, acting health officer of Alameda county, assisted by the public health nurses in the district, will immunize all who need the protection.

Whoooping cough immunization is offered to all pre-school children. The initial immunization, which according to Dr. Malcolm, should be started from the age of three to six months, consists of three injections given four weeks apart, followed by one booster dose annually until of school age.

Diphtheria immunization also consists of three initial injections given four weeks apart. These injections may be started from six to nine months, as with vaccination for smallpox. After the first series of diphtheria injections the child is offered a booster three years hence. Smallpox vaccinations should be repeated for both children and adults every five years.

COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN GOES OVER AS TOWNSHIP EXCEEDS ITS $6,000 QUOTA

Contributions to the 1947 Washington Township Community Chest fund-raising campaign soared over the $6,000 quota at noon Wednesday and Campaign Chairman Warren Gravestock expressed the possibility that a total of $7,000 might be raised here when all contributions have been collected.

Gravestock revealed yesterday that there are still several volunteer solicitors and local industries that have yet to report the final amounts they have received in contributions.

GOOD RESPONSE

"The workers did a marvelous job of canvassing the township and the response they received indicates that, as in former years, the residents here realize the benefits derived from the worthwhile organizations that depend upon their contributions," Gravestock said. "We should take particular pride in achieving our quota in a little more than three weeks when we hear of neighboring communities that are still far from their goal," he added.

WORKERS COMPLIMENTED

Officers of the Township Community Chest, Edward E. Enos, president; Judge Allen G. Norris, vice-president; Carl Christensen, treasurer; Carmelita Berge, secretary; and Gravestock, campaign manager, have all expressed appreciation of the splendid cooperation and the hours of work afforded the campaign by the community chairmen and their corps of solicitors.

Chairmen who headed the drive in each of the communities were: Judge Allen G. Norris, initial gifts; E. Dixon Bristow, Niles; M. W. Lewis, Centerville; Fred Melhase, Newark; William Katzer, Alvarado; P. J. Faletti, Decoto; Lois Bottenberg, Mission San Jose; John Souza, Warm Springs; Mrs. Ann Mayock, Irvington; and Mrs. Elsie Madruga, Alviso district.

The Jones boy was able to return to his studies at Washington Union High School last Thursday but is still under doctors care.

The stabbing took place on First street, Niles, on October 15, following an altercation on a school bus over whether a bus window should be open or closed. Jones was rushed to Alameda Hospital where an emergency operation revealed that the blade of the knife had not penetrated any vital organ.

REGISTER CONTEST GAINS MOMENTUM IN SECOND WEEK

The $1,200.00 Circulation Club being sponsored by The Township Register is getting under way but there is still time for new candidates to enter the friendly competition and get to the top of the list by a few days successful work. It is not hard to get subscriptions; many people have been waiting for someone to come to their homes and get their subscriptions. Subscriptions mean points, and points mean awards.

The first grand award is $500 cash; $200 is second grand award, and there are two district awards of $100 each and of $50 each.

This is a great opportunity for those who cannot devote enough time to the work to secure an award since all who do not receive an award will be paid 10 per cent of all subscriptions turned in by them. Just now, near Christmas time, a nice sum of Christmas money may be earned in an easy, pleasant way, by joining the Club.

Miss Shirley Alameda of Irvington is holding first place this week, Mrs. Ethel Avilla of Decoto is a close second, and Mrs.

Ground was broken at the corner lot of Second and I streets in Niles Wednesday for the erection of a new $31,798 business building which will house three stores.

The building, the first to be erected in Niles business district in several years, is being financed by E. H. Renzel Jr., San Jose, with Hugh A. Garner, Hayward, as the general contractor.

The structure will be modernistic ranch-type in design with a plate glass front, as drawn by Architect Gifford E. Sobey, San Jose.

A 45 by 85-foot section of the one-story building will house the Red and White Grocery, now located in the Ellsworth building at First and I streets. A 24 by 24 portion of the building will be divided into two sections, each to be made suitable for retail shops.

The erection of the new building marks the beginning of a long-talked possibility by local residents of opening up Second street as a commercial district.

NEWS from Walt & Ed

For Christmas ornaments try painting grasses and plant leaves with aluminum or bronze paint. They are ideal for decorating packages or for a table centerpiece, or corsages. Plant leaves or sprays must be completely immersed in the paint so that the moisture is sealed inside. They will last for weeks.

NILES, IRVINGTON RAINED OUT; DECOTO BOWS TO ASHLAND

Niles and Irvington ball clubs, playing the the Southern Alameda Winter Baseball League, were idle last Sunday because of wet grounds at the home fields, but Marlo of Decoto journeyed to Ashland and were defeated by the league-leading, undefeated Ashland Merchants 8 to 3.

With John Garcia on the mound for the locals, and pitching a stellar brand of ball, the Marlo aggregation went into the fateful sixth inning leading 3 to 2. As has been Decotos trouble throughout the season, they weakened for one inning which was enough to allow the powerful Ashlanders to smash in a sufficient lead to win.

V. Vargas, Marlo catcher, was the batting standout of the day, getting three hits in as many trips to the plate.

Next Sunday Niles will be host to Marlo at the Centerville diamond and Irvington will be host to Ramos Drugs.

PUPPIES LOSE 12-6 TO MOUNTAIN VIEW

The Washington Puppies lost a hard fought battle to the Mt. View lightweights last Friday evening by the score of 12 to 6.

The game was one of those affairs where the "breaks" of the game makes the difference between victory and defeat. On the first play from scrimmage, Rose broke loose for a 54-yard sprint into the end zone, only to have the play called back and the Puppies penalized for backfield in motion. One of the Mt. View touchdowns came via a bad pass from center which was recovered in the end zone.

Tonight Coach Hird's aggregation will be pitted against Santa Clara, reported to be the strongest "30" squad in the league, in a game called for 6 p.m. on the home field.

PROMENADERS WILL MEET SATURDAY

The regular monthly dancing party of the Irvington Promenaders will be held Saturday evening at the Irvington Elementary School. Mrs. Vernon Leal and Mrs. Lawrence Dutra will be co-hostesses.

HUSKIES WILL MEET SANTA CLARA TEAM AT LOCAL STADIUM

One of the crucial games of the S.C.V.A. League gridiron schedule will be played at Washington Memorial field tonight when the Huskies' kennel will be invaded by the Santa Clara Panthers.

The Panthers will come here fresh from a 44-13 trouncing given the Fremont Indians last Friday night and will be out for a victory which might break their first-place tie with Campbell.

HUSKIES READY

The Huskies, however, have added considerably to their confidence since their 20 to 0 victory last Friday over Mountain View and Coaches Taylor and Voorhees, unhampered by injuries for the first time this season, will send a much harder hitting, blocking, and wiser combination into the fray, determined to "pin back the ears" of the visiting Panthers.

In their game at Mountain View last Friday the Huskies battled evenly the first quarter with neither team seriously threatening to score.

Early in the second stanza Rodriguez, on a cutback from the seven yard line, scored the initial touchdown of the fray. Goularte booted the extra point and the Huskies led 7 to 0.

RESERVES HOLD

With but three minutes to go before the half-time the Huskies took over on their own 42-yard stripe. On a series of end sweeps and off-tackle smashes, they drove to the 25-yard line. A screen pass from Graber to Sankene accounted for the second T.D. with but 20 seconds left. Goularte's attempted placement for extra point was wide and the half ended 13-0.

Washington kicked to Mountain View to open the second half and on the third play Morley intercepted and scampered to the 11-yard stripe. On the second play Roger Halliday scooted around end into the end zone. Goularte added the extra point by splitting the uprights with his placement.

During the final stanza Coaches Taylor and Voorhees gave their regulars a rest and the "seconds," although failing to score, held the host team scoreless.

'HANK' BORCHI OUT

Football fans who have been wondering why Hank Borghi was out of the line-up of the last Cal game will be sorry to learn that he pulled a ligament in his leg, and may not even be able to play in this Saturday's game.

Hank has been playing a bang-up game for the Bears and is greatly missed in his position at right tackle. He is the son of Mrs. Bessie Borghi of Decoto.

ONE BILLION DOLLARS

Means More Steel for the Things You Want

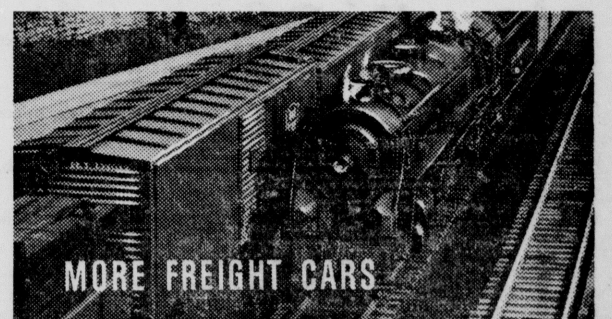

MORE HOMES

MORE AUTOMOBILES

MORE FREIGHT CARS

STEEL companies are pushing to complete the biggest program of expansion and improvements in the peacetime history of steel.

More than one billion dollars is being spent. More than 2,500,000 tons of new steelmaking equipment is being built.

Meanwhile steel production in 1947 is setting new records. Production in October exceeded average monthly output in the peak year of war production. The total tonnage for the year will establish a new peacetime record by a wide margin.

Demand still is great and some shortages still exist. But production is catching up as rapidly as possible. Every month there is more steel for the things you want.

"IT'S TIME TO BEGIN THINKING OF CHRISTMAS GIFTS," SAYS EDWARD L. ROSE.

"AND WHEN YOU THINK OF GIFTS, THINK OF OUR STORE AND THE WIDE SELECTION OF FINE HOME FURNISHINGS AND APPLIANCES."

So-o-o, Mr. Knave, you think I missed the point entirely. (Readers, read Tuesday's Oakland Tribune.)

On the contrary, I think YOU missed the point. I was simply pointing out the analogy between a nagging wife rushing to her husband's defense if he is criticized by someone other than herself, and a small town that can take criticism from its own townspeople but bristles if an outsider hurls the jibes.

I was not, as you so blithely say, rushing to my own husband's defense. Should I defend him? And if so, for what? It was simply an analogy. Get it?

Now I'll stop before this thing develops into a Fred Allen-Jack Benny feud.

SO WHERE?

There's one thing you'll have to say for all these signs some wagish soul has seen fit to erect on the highway to inform the tourists about Vallejo Mills. Like the Burma Shave ads, you DO keep reading them—a half dozen of them! But, unlike Burma Shave ads, which bring you eventually to the point, or to the punch line, the Vallejo Mills signs bring you exactly nowhere! The one crucial sign, the one you await with bated breath to tell you now here, at last, is THE spot, is conspicuous by the fact that its arrow waves merrily off towards some vague spot that could be the California Pottery, Anna Bradford's cottage court, or Livermore. It could be anything, in fact, but the site of the Old Vallejo Mills.

To prove further that the boys who erected these jovial little signs have the minds of practical jokers they have put them up right in front of those anemic stop signs—which adds still more confusion to "Death's Corners."

HOME ARTS FAIR CONCEDED TO BE HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

Over $300 were taken in at last Tuesday's fair and bazaar given at the Country Club in Centerville by the Home Arts Section. Mrs. Warren Gravestock, general chairman, expressed her thanks to all of the co-chairmen and women in the Home Arts group who contributed to making the affair such a huge success.

In addition to the club members, the club house was packed with other women in the community who had heard the rumor that many lovely—and delicious—items were to be put on sale. The rumor was confirmed. The articles went so fast that those in charge were in a whirlwind of change-making.

KENNETH CANNON CLAIMED BY DEATH

Kenneth Cannon, father of Mrs. Helen Rogers, Post Office Box 418, Centerville, now a resident of Morrison Canyon Road, succumbed to a short illness in a San Jose hospital on November 2.

Mr. Cannon, better known to all his friends as "Kit Carson," was born in Sackcenter, Minnesota, on March 6, 1867, where he lived until 1928 when he moved to Southern California. He remained there until after the death of his wife, Hanna, and in July, 1947, moved to this district to reside with his daughter and son-in-law, Helen and Keith Rogers.

As a boy he was given the name of Kit Carson by his schoolmates and throughout his life-time continued to go by that name.

A chapel service was held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Chapel of the Palms in Centerville. Closing services were at Oak Hill Cemetery, San Jose.

Reverend Jaeger, a nephew-in-law of Mr. William Davis of Decoto, entertained the guests by showing an amazing collection of colored movie films, which depicted the wild life in Africa as well as some very fine shots of the King and Queen of England during their recent visit there. Other guests at the dinner party were Rev. Jaeger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jaeger of San Francisco, Mrs. W. H. Ford, Mrs. James Whipple and Mr. and Mrs. William Davis.

The Jaegers will return to Africa in a couple of weeks.

Witches and goblins, black cats and "spooks," placed in out of the way places in the Gorman barn, served to get little Miss Suzanne Gorman's 24 young guests into the proper Halloween spirit at her party last Saturday night. The children, all in costume, had a merry time playing traditional Halloween games and dancing. Refreshments of "hot dogs," cake and home-made ice cream were served.

High School Set At Halloween Party

The home of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Grau was the scene of gay festivities last Saturday night when their daughter, Miss Betty Grau, was the hostess at a Halloween party. Betty, assisted by several of her high school friends, lined the Grau driveway with huge pumpkins. This "jack-o'-lantern lane" led up to the front door at which stood a gruesome looking skeleton. Thus the guests, about 40 high school upper classmen and San Jose State freshmen, were put into the proper Halloween spirit before entering the house, which was also decorated in appropriate Halloween decor. Refreshments of sandwiches, cokes, and cakes were served. Dancing and games comprised the entertainment.

A surprise visit from Robert Solon, First Engineer on the American President Lines, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Solon, last Friday was the incentive for a jolly family get-together. Dr. and Mrs. Jack Rathbone (Leona Solon) hurried up from Santa Barbara and it was the first time in six years that the family had been together at the same time. Inasmuch as Robert will not be able to be here for either Thanksgiving or Christmas, there was a good old-fashioned celebration last week-end that was in the traditional holiday spirit. Robert left Monday for another trip around the world. The Rathbones have also returned.

Judging from the amount of enthusiasm shown at a dinner meeting at Svengard's in Hayward last Monday night, the "Southern Alameda County Community Concert Series" will be a definite success.

Over a hundred people attended the dinner and organization meeting. Many came from Washington Township.

Presided over by Floyd Sparks of Hayward, the meeting got off to a good start with enthusiastic responses from several civic leaders toward the idea of a concert series supported by the southern end of the county.

The success of the series, according to the speaker from the home office, rests upon the untiring efforts of volunteer committees and campaign workers who make possible permanent concerts in their home cities by perpetuating non-profit membership audiences.

Every one who attended Monday night's dinner was handed several membership cards which, according to late report, have been snapped up by music lovers all over this area. The membership fee is five dollars in addition to tax for adults, and $2.50 with tax additional for students.

With a sell-out of memberships, this area is assured of being able to hear several of the world's best artists this season right here in our own back yard, so to speak. The concerts will be given in the Hayward High School auditorium.

The Community Concert Service includes such well known artists as Nadine Conner, Lilly Pons, Helen Traubel, Nino Martini, Robert Casadesu, Paul Robeson and many, many others. These artists will naturally not all appear in one season, but, in three or four seasons all of them could reasonably be heard.

VARGAS INFANT IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Little Louise Linda Vargas, 5-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vargas, 923 Railroad avenue, Decoto, was taken by death Saturday. She was the sister of Dolores and Hanna Vargas.

FAMED BALLERINA IN SAN JOSE SOON

Alicia Markova, titled "the world's greatest ballerina," and Anton Dolin, one of its greatest dancers, come with their own company and orchestra to the auditorium, San Jose, on next Monday evening, November 10. One of the thrilling events of the evening will be "The Dying Swan," to music of Saint-Saens, which was immortalized by Pavlova. Since Markova is said by John Martin of the New York Times to be "greater than Pavlova," balletomanes are awaiting the number with eagerness.

Father Flannigan's Boys Town Choir of 40 voices will sing in the San Jose auditorium on Friday evening, November 14. The beautiful and joyous quality of the voices, carefully selected from the Choir of 150, reflects the faith of Father Flannigan and his work in making a home for the homeless children. The program is entertainingly varied, ranging from liturgical chants to folk airs of Czechoslovakia, Italy, Germany, songs of Mozart and Brahms, American spirituals and folk tunes, to such gay modern things as Gershwin's "Strike Up the Band" and Strauss' "Come and Sing" from the "Bat."

"Angel Street," with Gregory Peck and Laraine Day, plays in San Jose on Thursday evening, November 27. Tickets for all events are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

JOLLY BACK ON JOB

The town of Newark can breathe again! Dick Jolly is back on the job. Everything in the salty little town seemed to have come to a standstill when the popular druggist failed to make an appearance in his store for a few days on account of illness. But Dick is well again now, and the routine of business of Newark is going on as usual.

CLUB CHORAL GROUP INVITES MEMBERS

Any member of the County Club of Washington Township interested in choral work are invited to attend the opening rehearsal of a choral group next Monday night at the home of Mrs. Dwight Thornburg in Centerville.

Mrs. Roland Bendel, who is organizing the group, assures those who are interested that they do not have to have a trained voice. All that is necessary is a willingness and a desire to sing in a group.

This group will provide the Christmas music for the annual Christmas program of the club. So far 15 members have expressed a desire to join the choral group.

MRS. CARVALHO IS LAID TO REST

Mrs. Juana Carvalho, 59, wife of Frank Carvalho, Decoto, succumbed in an Oakland hospital on October 30 following a short illness. She was a native of Puerto Rico but had resided in Washington Township most of her life.

Services were held at the residence in Decoto Monday at 9 a.m. followed by a requiem mass at Corpus Christi Church, Niles, at 9:30 a.m.

Interment was at Holy Ghost Cemetery under the direction of the Berge Mortuary Company of Niles.

NEWLYWEDS HOME

Home from a honeymoon spent in Seattle, Washington, are the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vincent (Rose Croce) who were married at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, Sept. 27, in the Hayward Catholic Church. Mr. Victor Croce gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride was gowned in an exquisite white satin dress, made with a gathered bodice, long sleeves and a long train. Her net veil, edged in wide lace, was held in place by a coronet of braided satin. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and gardenias.

Miss Dolores Mogana, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink lace dress made with a peplum and carried white sweet peas and carnations. Edwin Vincent, brother of Howard, was best man.

The benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Vincent of Hayward, was a staff sergeant in World War II, serving four years in the Pacific and E.T.O.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the benedict's parents on Riverside Drive in Hayward Highlands. The newlyweds will live in Decoto.

SURPRISE WEDDING

A surprise Reno wedding took place Sunday, Oct. 26, for Nadine King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis King, and Ralph Edward Farnham of Pleasanton. Friends of the bride and groom stood in attendance. The bride wore a gray suit with black accessories and wore an orchid corsage. She is a graduate of Washington Union High School.

The young Mr. Farnham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farnham Sr. of Pleasanton. He graduated from the Amador High School and served as a private in the army for one year.

On Saturday night, Nov. 1, a reception was held for the newlyweds at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Enos, Sunday, Nov. 2. The centerpiece consisted of a large wedding ring made of baby chrysanthemums and a miniature bride and groom, all resting on a gleaming white cloth. After the dinner, cards and bingo provided entertainment. Other guests were: Barbara and Betty, daughters of the hosts; Mr.

and Mrs. Manuel E. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Soares and Mrs. Mary Sequeira.

RENO WED

Miss Louise Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bush of Oakland, and Joe Monte were married Saturday, Nov. 1, in Reno. The former Miss Bush wore a gray suit with black accessories and wore an orchid corsage. Elenna Monte, who attended the bride, wore a brown suit with darker brown accessories. Tony Monte did best man honors.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Monte. He served six years with the U. S. Navy and saw action in the Pacific during World War II. The young couple plan to make their home in Hayward. Joe is employed by Claude T. Lindsay in Decoto.

Refreshment time came and all enjoyed sandwiches, ice cream, cup cakes with jack o' lantern faces, candy and punch. Guests were: Phyllis Fine, Carolyn Musick, Diana and Paul

'FICKLE' DEFENDANT IN CENTERVILLE COURT

'OH, WELL, IT'S A GUY'S PRIVILEGE'

The scene was the Centerville Justice Court. The time was last Friday at 1 p.m. The audience was comprised of 20 residents of Washington Township who had been summoned as a jury panel and Constable Henry Vervais who had spent one entire day tramping about in the rain summoning the prospective jurors; and the star of the performance, Randolph E. Nelson, charged with vagrancy.

CHANGES MIND

Judge Allen G. Norris took his place in the courtroom and summoned the defendant before him. "Randolph Nelson, you are charged with vagrancy and upon your recent plea of not guilty and demand for a jury trial we have summoned a panel of jurors," Judge Norris stated. "Are you ready to go to trial?"

"Your Honor, I plead guilty," came back the reply from the disheveled Nelson.

"You mean you retract your former plea of not guilty and wish to enter a plea of guilty at this time?" the judge asked.

"Yes, your Honor."

With that reply the day's work

kins. Besides the hosts and their little daughter, Diane Rae, there were: Mr. and Mrs. Nick Tedeschi and daughter Joanne of San Leandro, Mrs. J. Tedeschi of Livermore, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buonassissi of Lafayette. Later in the evening the party went to the Tedeschi home in San Leandro where they enjoyed birthday cake and coffee.

ARNOLD INGLIN DIES OF HEART ATTACK

V. F. W. NEWS

The Department of California, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has embarked on a statewide safety campaign, "Invitation to Live."

Reduction of accidents in towns and rural areas is the aim of the campaign which stresses that "the National Safety Council is doing an excellent job in the larger cities but no concentrated effort is being made in rural areas."

This campaign should be of interest here in Niles. Vallejo Mills Post will take an active part. Watch for latest developments as the drive gets under way.

One of the big events of the month is the big Second Annual Armistice Ball sponsored by the 14th District, Veterans of Foreign Wars. The date is Saturday, Nov. 8; the place, Oakland Municipal Auditorium. Music will be furnished by Murray Peterson and his nationally known orchestra.

All proceeds from the dance will go to the 14th District Hospital fund. Tickets can be procured from any post or auxiliary in the district for one dollar each.

Ray Andrade, who has the responsibility of ordering colors for Vallejo Mills Post, reports that the post will be in possession of a fine set of colors soon. This includes a national flag of fine rayon and post banner of rayon with embroidered gold lettering. Mr. Andrade has also ordered about thirty V.F.W. caps to be given to the quartermaster for sale to members. Thanks to Theodore Lira, Lawrence Pine and Ruben Lorensen for contributions to the flag and cap fund.

IRVINGTON WOMAN SENDS AID TO EUROPE

HAS REPAIRED, SHIPPED 1,000 GARMENTS

There's at least one little lady in Washington Township who does not sit idly by, regretting the horrible plight of the destitute children in Europe. She does not—she acts. Even as you or I—shake her head sadly and say, "Tch, tch, isn't it a shame? Something should be done for those poor little cold and hungry children."

No, this little lady doesn't waste time in idle regrets. While other people are talking and "tch, tch-ing" she gets to WORK.

Mrs. Lily Schuldt of Irvington, a gray-haired energetic little woman past the three score and ten mark, repaired or made over a thousand garments for the stricken children in Europe during the war! Women who never seem to have time to even keep the family's socks darned will probably be agghast at this amazing record and wonder "where did she ever find the time?"

Mrs. Schuldt doesn't find the time; she MAKES the time. Every minute that she is idle she feels that some unfortunate child somewhere in the world is being deprived of her services.

"Even though the war is over," said Mrs. Schuldt, "there are so many poorly-clad people in the world that any little thing I can do I'm sure is appreciated somewhere by someone."

Then Mrs. Schuldt went on to tell about the babies of present-day Greece. "You know," she said sadly, "many babies are born without any layettes in readiness for them. They say that hundreds of Greek mothers have nothing to wrap their new-born in except a towel or old piece of cloth."

For this reason Mrs. Schuldt has enlisted the aid of the women of the Irvington Community Church in helping her make baby garments. She herself has just completed her nineteenth baby comforter. "I make them, and the women of the church have been very kind in helping me to tie them."

She held several of them up for inspection. The comforters are colorful, well-made, and, most important, warm.

Some unknown little Greek baby will be cozily unaware when he is wrapped in one of these warm comforters that he is covered with a patchwork of Mrs. Smith's flannel nightgown, Mrs. Jones's last year's summer cotton, and a remnant of Mrs. Brown's winter suit. Some Greek mother, however, will give undying gratitude to an industrious and kind-hearted woman and her cohorts in far-away Irvington.

In addition to the comforters, Mrs. Schuldt is making flannel baby garments and coats and little shirts. She also tucks surprises away in the garments. Safety pins, for instance. "They're so hard to get over there, I'm sure they'll be delighted to have some," said Mrs. Schuldt, who has acquired much of her knowledge about conditions in Greece from church missionaries who have come back from there.

Even though the Greek women had the material—which they do not—they would still be hampered in any sewing project, according to Mrs. Schuldt, because of the shortage of needles. To American women, accustomed to abandoning the search for a lost needle almost as quickly as it is started because there are always others at hand, the idea of hoarding a needle—one needle—seems almost preposterous. Yet that is what the Greek women do. Needles are so scarce that a woman who is the possessor of one is looked upon with envy by other women.

Mrs. Schuldt, who devotes so much of her life in giving of herself to others, stoutly maintains that what she is doing "isn't anything." "If we seem to have done a lot, it's only because all the women get together to help," she said, disclaiming any particular credit for herself.

In addition to her sewing, she takes care of her home, and keeps her little garden of strawberry beds, asparagus beds, citrus fruits, and roses in apple-pie order. Since her husband's death (he was 95 when he passed away) she is alone. And yet there is that about her which leads you to believe she is not lonely. And—come to think about it—how could any woman, who has made over a thousand garments for probably as many people, feel lonely? A thousand or more people—even though they do not know her—call her "friend."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES "Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, November 9, with the following Golden Text from Ephesians: "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord, walk as children of light" (5:8). The following citation is included in the sermon: Romans: "For by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ" (5:17).

THE PRESSES MUST ROLL— BUT NOT WITHOUT KIBBY

Hugh Kibby, teacher at the Washington Union High School, has just an inkling now of his real importance at that institution of learning. Laid up with an infected leg since last Saturday, he has been unable to attend his classes, with the result that the school paper, "The Hatchet," could not go to press this week.

Kibby, you see, has charge of the printing of the paper, and, without him, the "show could not go on," or, strictly speaking, "The Hatchet could not come out." His fellow teachers, as well as students, are hoping for a speedy recovery, for his sake as well as for the morale of the student body which depends, to a large degree, on the "gossip sheet."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our gratitude for the many gifts and kind expressions of sympathy extended to our son from the townspeople and his school associates following his recent accident. These kindnesses contributed in a large measure to his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones.
